Baker McKenzie announced a round of promotions, including 10 new partners and a lateral hire in Latin America.

Across the region, the new partners were evenly distributed with two partners each in the Buenos Aires, Santiago de Chile and Sao Paulo offices. Elsewhere, Guadalajara welcomed a new partner as a lateral hire while three associates joined the partnership in Lima and one in Bogota.

Globally, the firm promoted 80 partners including 31 women.

Claudia Prado, Chair of Latin America for Baker McKenzie said: "These promotions enhance our ability to continue offering world-renowned legal advice to our clients throughout Latin America. Our continuous year-over-year growth in the region and investments in new technologies help maintain our leadership position in the region, attract and retain top talent, and enhance our ability to serve our clients."
