

BATALLA SALTO LUNA PROMOTES TWO TO ITS PARTNERSHIP

Posted on 18 April 2016

Category: News

Costa Rica law firm Batalla Salto Luna has promoted Anayansi Mora and Cristina Sansonetti to partners.

Mora has been with Batalla Salto Luna for over nine years and focuses on tax litigation while Sansonetti leads the firm's Central American desk and specializes in multi-jurisdictional tax matters for M&A transactions and restructuring processes.

"We are delighted to announce Cris and Ana's promotions. Over the last few years, they have shown a great capacity for growing our business and ensuring excellent service for our clients, said Mariano Batalla, managing partner. "It is a testament to their talent, legal expertise and their outstanding contribution and commitment to our firm's purpose," he added. "We recognize that our people are at the heart of our success and these promotions reflect our commitment to nurturing and rewarding the diverse talent we hold within the firm."

With the new appointments, the partner count at Batalla Salto Luna grows to 10.