Marval O'Farrell & Mairal advised The Brink's Company on the acquisition of its Argentinean rivals MACO for approximately $200 million.

MACO Transportadora de Caudales is based in Buenos Aires and focuses on cash-in-transit services and money processing operations. Brink's is a global provider of secure logistics, cash-in-transit and ATM services. The company is listed on the NYSE and headquartered in Richmond, Virginia.

Partner Pablo García Morillo led the Marval team advising Brink's.

MACO instructed Bruchou, Fernández Madero & Lombardi.
