Barreto Veiga Advogados has announced the addition of Rafael Teixeira (pictured) as a new partner in the M&A and Corporate Law team.

Felipe Barreto Veiga, founding partner of the firm says: "In addition to having a career built in excellent firms and a solid performance in the M&A market, Rafael also has an international experience that will certainly add a lot to our foreign clients looking to make acquisitions in Brazil - and to clients looking to sell their companies to international players from abroad."

"My objective is to contribute to the growth of the firm and expansion of markets, in addition to consolidating even more its position in the competitive market of transactional full-service law firms," Teixeira commented.

Rafael Teixeira is a graduate of Mackenzie University and holds an LLM in Corporate Law from New York University, as well as a post-graduate degree from FGV - Fundação Getúlio Vargas. Prior to joining the firm, he worked at renowned law firms such as Veirano Advogados, Madrona Advogados, Stocche Forbes and Melcheds.
