Carey has acted as legal counsel to LarrainVial, representing a group of investors, in a private equity transaction for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Farmacias Ahumada from UK-based transnational company Walgreens Boots Alliance.

This transaction was signed on 16 May, with DLA Piper acting as advisor to Walgreens and Farmacias Ahumada.

The transaction involved extensive due diligence of the assets and operations of Farmacias Ahumada and the negotiation of a share purchase agreement, as well as the structuring of the investment.

DLA Piper's team involved partners Matías Zegers and Jorge Timermann together with associate Hugo Molina.
