Carey has assisted Nabix, a subsidiary of Asterion Industrial Partners, on the Chilean aspects of the sale of a portfolio of data centers in Latin America, to Actis, a British private equity fund, for US $500 million.

This transaction was closed on 28 March and involved the jurisdictions of Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru and the US. Other participating firms were Clifford Chance and Rodrigo Elías & Medrano as advisors to Asterion in Spain and Peru, respectively; as well as Cuatrecasas, Payet Rey Cauvi Pérez, and Pinheiro Neto as advisors to Actis in Chile, Peru and Brazil, respectively.

The advice involved the analysis and review of the transaction documents from a corporate, regulatory, real estate and tax point of view under Chilean law.

Carolina Toro acted as in-house counsel to Nabix.

Clifford Chance's team was represented by partner Javier Amantegui.

Payet Rey Cauvi Pérez' team comprised partner Juan Antonio Egüez and principal associate Guillermo Arribas.

Cuatrecasas (Chile) team was composed of partners Sebastián Leyton and Tomás Kubick.
