Carey advised Séché on the local law aspects of its acquisition of Soluciones Ambientales del Norte, the Chilean subsidiary of Befesa. Séché also instructed Linklaters in New York and Rodrigo Elias & Medrano in Peru.

Séché Environnement is French company focusing on the recovery and treatment of all types of waste. The company has nearly 2,000 employees in France, Germany, Spain, Argentina and Mexico.

Befesa provides critical environmental services by recycling hazardous waste in a regulated environment.

The Chilean transaction was part of a global deal which included the sale of Befesa Perú and Befesa's stake in Solarca (a Spanish company specialized in industrial maintenance services) to Séché Environnement.

Partner Francisco Ugarte led the Carey team advising Séché on Chilean law.

Partners Francisco Tong and Jorge Trelles led the team at Rodrigo Elias & Medrano which advised Séché under Peruvian law.

Séché also instructed Linklaters as international counsel.

Befesa retained Clifford Chance in Madrid.
