Chile's largest law firm, Carey, has promoted Aldo Molinari, Jorge Ugarte and Francisco Guzman to partner.

Molinari focuses primarily on civil and commercial litigation as well as administrative and environmental regulatory litigation. He also has experience in commercial and investment arbitration. He worked at Herbert Smith Freehills' international arbitration group in New York from 2013 to 2014.

Ugarte's practice focuses mainly on mergers and acquisitions, shareholders agreements, board's liability and corporate governance, capital markets and financial transactions in general.

Guzman regularly represents Chilean and international clients in M&A transactions, investment funds, private equity, venture capital and corporate law. Between 2010 and 2011 he worked at White & Case in New York.
