

CASCIONE PULINO HAS TWO NEW PARTNERS

Posted on 27 April 2022

Category: News

Cascione Pulino Boulos Advogados has strengthened its Insolvency and Asset Management and Investment Funds practices

Cascione Pulino Boulos Advogados has strengthened its Insolvency and Asset Management and Investment Funds practice with the arrival of partners João Guilherme Dal Fabbro (pictured left) and André De Vita (pictured right), both partners are based in São Paulo.

João will lead Cascione's Restructuring and Insolvency area. With more than 17 years of experience, he focuses his practice in credit recovery actions, advising the secondary market in the purchase and sale of credit and restructuring of companies and debts. Our partner is a graduate from USP, where he also holds a master's degree in Commercial Law.

João previously worked for nine years at Banco BTG Pactual S.A. (from 2007 to 2016), where he oversaw the Onshore Credit Deals and Litigation practice. He joins Cascione after founding in 2021 Dal Fabbro Advogados, a spin-off from Oliverio Dal Fabbro Abid Advogados.

André will be responsible for the Investment Funds area. He has a degree in Law from Mackenzie and a post-graduate degree in Economics from the FGV School of Economics. The new partner has been working for almost two decades advising asset managers, family offices, and investors in general on issues related to asset management activities, investment fund structuring, and Private Equity & Venture Capital operations, both national and international. André has already worked in the Financial and Capital Markets area, was Chief Legal and Compliance Officer at Endurance Capital Partners, an asset management company focused on Private Equity and held the position of Head of Legal for Latin America at JPMorgan Asset Management.

Translated with www.DeepL.com/Translator (free version)