Cescon Barrieu Advogados advised Copel Geração e Transmissão, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Companhia Paranaense de Energia COPEL, in the acquisition of 11 companies, 2 of which are holding companies and, indirectly, their 9 subsidiaries that are wind power plants.

With the acquisition, Copel will be able to operate the targets' wind farms, which comprise 9 operating wind farms (brownfield), located in the Cities of Touros and São Tomé in Rio Grande do Norte, a region considered to be one of the best in the world for generating wind source energy.

The transaction value was R$ 1.203.000.000,00.

Pinheiro Neto Advogados as legal counsel to the sellers and relied on partners João Marcelo G. Pacheco and Roberta Stettinger Bilotti Demange, senior associate Fernando Pacheco Di Francesco and associates Gabriella Lima Florner and Tatiana Dutra Bacchin.
