Consortium Legal advised Volaris on setting up operations in El Salvador, including flight permits for direct connections between San Salvador and San Jose, Costa Rica.

Volaris (formally Concesionaria Vuela Compañía de Aviación, S.A.B. de C.V.) is a Mexican low-cost airline founded in August 2005. The carrier now runs 150 routes and point to point services in Mexico, EEUU, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, El Salvador and Puerto Rico with 49 planes.

Partner Maria Alejandra Tulipano led the team advising Volaris, which also included partners Diego Martin and Oscar Samour.
