With extensive practice in Tax Law and offices in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, DCG - Daudt, Castro e Gallotti Olinto Advogados and BVM Advogados, a firm specialized in Customs Law and Foreign Trade based in Recife, have just signed a strategic partnership to deliver complete solutions in legal matters related to the international trade of goods and services.

With the consolidation of this project, the two offices will be able to provide the market, partners and the client portfolio - made up of national and international companies from the most diverse segments, such as the automotive industry, retail, food and beverages - a broader operation in the provision of legal services and strategic consultancy in Customs and Tax Law, focusing on the South, Southeast and Northeast regions.

According to José Guilherme Missagia (pictured), partner at Daudt, Castro e Gallotti Olinto, the association offers the market an even more motivated team with comprehensive and multidisciplinary backgrounds.
