Demarest Advogados announced that Ana Carolina Botto Audi has joined the firm as partner in the M&A practice group.

Botto Audi graduated from Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo and further specialized in M&A and Corporate Finance at the University of Pennsylvania and Wharton School of Economics. She has over fifteen years of experience advising blue chip clients on private equity investments, mergers, stock and asset acquisitions, going-private deals and joint ventures.

"I am delighted to rejoin Demarest, where I started my career as an intern," said Ana Carolina. "The firm's international recognition speaks for itself and the high quality advice has nurtured a spectrum of top clients in different industries. I look forward to working with my incredibly skillful colleagues."
