Demarest Advogados announced that Carlo Verona has joined the firm as a partner in the litigation and arbitration practice group.

Verona has over twenty years of experience in the field of dispute resolution. He graduated in Law from PUC São Paulo and holds an LL.M from the University of London – Queen Mary and Westfield College. Verona is also vice-president of the Brazilian Commission on Anti-Corruption and Corporate Responsibility of the International Chamber of Commerce – ICC and is an associate to the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in London.

"We approach the end of 2017 with the arrival of one more partner. We have only to celebrate the attractiveness that Demarest projects in the market. Lateral hires throughout this year continue to be aligned with our strategic planning and demonstrate our commitment to the ongoing pursuit of talents that will assist the firm in delivering quality services and excellence to our clients" affirmed Paulo Coelho da Rocha, Demarest co-managing partner.

Prior to joining Demarest, Verona was a partner at Lefosse Advogados.
