

DEMAREST ADDS NEW TAX PARTNER

Posted on 9 May 2017

Category: News

Brazilian law firm Demarest Advogados announced the arrival of Pedro Miguel Ferreira Custódio as new tax partner.

Pedro Custódio is a lawyer and economist whose expertise is tax law focused on financial institutions. Some of his main clients are banking institutions, insurers, asset management companies, and foreign investors. He joins the law firm from EY where he worked as partner and tax leader in financial services.

"Pedro Custódio's hiring strengthens our commitment with the financial sector in line with our strategic planning. We are excited about the good results this hiring will bring to our clients and to the firm," stated Paulo Coelho da Rocha, partner and Executive Director of Demarest.