Galindo, Arias & López advised Emirates in connection with the securing of an air carrier certificate issued by the Panamanian aviation authority (Autoridad de Aeronáutica Civil de Panamá).

The certificate is one of the critical permits required by Emirates to operate in Panama.

The Galindo, Arias & López team was led by partner Cristina Lewis.

Emirates, the world's largest international carrier, recently announced a new route connecting Dubai to Panama.

At 17 hours and 35 minutes, it will be the longest non-stop flight in the world.
