

FORMER GOVERNMENT COMPETITION ADVISOR JOINS CARIOLA DÍEZ

Posted on 8 May 2017

Category: News

Chilean law firm Cariola Díez Pérez-Cotapos announced that Jorge Grunberg has joined its antitrust practice group.

Grunberg graduated in law from the Universidad de Chile in 2007, he holds an LLM from Harvard (2010) and Master's Degree in Trade Regulation - Antitrust and Competition Policy from New York University School of Law (2011)

From 2014 to 2017, Jorge Grunberg advised the Minister of Economy and represented the government of Chile in Congress during the discussion of the amendments to the country's Competition Act of 2016 (Law No. 20,945).

Grunberg joins Cariola Díez as senior associate.