Miranda & Amado advised Intralot in the sale of 80% of its Peruvian capital stock to Nexus.

Intralot Group is a Greek gaming and sports betting company with a presence in 53 countries. The buyer, Nexus Group, is a Peru-based private equity firm. The deal, worth $68 million, closed at the end of November.

Reed Smith acted as US counsel to Intralot while Nexus instructed Muñiz, Ramirez in Peru and Milbank in the US.

Partner Roberto MacLean led the Miranda & Amado team advising Intralot.
