

GARCÍA & BODÁN OPENS THIRD OFFICE IN NICARAGUA

Posted on 16 January 2017

Category: News

Central America law firm García & Bodán announced it added a new office in Tola, Rivas, the 3rd in its home country.

The firm added in the announcement that the move responds to growing demand from clients in the real estate and tourism industry in the local area.

The new office will be led by Eduardo Cabrales, managing partner of García & Bodán in San Juan del Sur, who will be supervising both offices. The offices are close in geography and practices.

The firm now has 7 offices across El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua.