

HOGAN LOVELLS HIRES LITIGATION PARTNER IN MEXICO

Posted on 14 December 2015

Category: News

Hogan Lovells BSTL has hired litigation and arbitration partner Alejandro Garcia from Mexican law firm Paramo, Fernandez, Najera y Rodarte.

Garcia, who was a partner at Paramo, Fernandez, Najera y Rodarte for ten years, specialises in commercial, civil, and administrative litigation.

Hogan Lovells BSTL managing partner Juan Francisco Torres Landa said: "Alejandro is one of the most renowned litigation practitioners in Northeast Mexico, and has represented some of the largest enterprises in the region across a broad industry spectrum.

"His experience and character make Alejandro the best candidate to lead our litigation practice in Monterrey."