

JDF ADDS FORMER MINISTER JAVIER NARANJO

Posted on 20 April 2022

Category: News

Tags: Jara del Favero, JDF

Jara del Favero strengthens its Environment and Natural Resources practice with the incorporation of Javier Naranjo as director of the area

Chilean law firm Jara del Favero has announced the appointment of former Minister of Environment, Javier Naranjo Solano (pictured), as head of the Environment and Natural Resources practice.

Javier holds a law degree from Universidad Andrés Bello, and a Master's degree in Regulatory Law from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. He has previously worked at JDF, and as Minister and Undersecretary of Environment, as well as head of Legal Affairs at the Environmental Assessment Service, where he also served as head of the Department of Litigation and Administrative Appeals.