K&L Gates have announced the arrival of Felipe Eluf Creazzo as a partner in São Paulo. He joins from Lobo & de Rizzo Advogados.

Creazzo focuses his practice on advising lenders and borrowers in structured bank, trade, project, and ECA-backed financings, in addition to debenture and note issuances. He is qualified in New York, the District of Columbia, and Brazil.

Creazzo regularly advises clients across a variety of sectors in accessing Latin American markets through joint ventures, stock acquisitions, and participation in privatization programs. These include oil & gas, infrastructure, mining, telecommunications, commodities, retail, financial services, health, and education.

"Felipe has a wealth of sector experience, and his arrival adds to the firm's global capabilities," said R.

Charles Miller, the firm's regional managing partner for the Americas.
