

KENNEDYS EXPANDS LATIN AMERICAN CAPABILITIES

Posted on 22 April 2016

Category: News

Kennedys, the international insurance specialist law firm, has hired Isadora Tálamo, a Brazilian qualified lawyer.

Tálamo focuses on financial lines claims and joins the firm from an in-house role a large insurer in Brazil.

Alex Guillamont, head of the Latin American Business Unit at Kennedys says "Brazil is a major user of insurance services. Expanding our international reach with the outstanding experience of Isadora is key to our strategy, and this is a further example of us providing excellent local assistance to our clients"

Tálamo focuses on financial lines claims and joins the firm from an inhouse role a large Brazilian insurer.

Alex Guillamont, head of the Latin American Business Unit at Kennedys said: "Brazil is a major user of insurance services. Expanding our international reach with the outstanding experience of Isadora is key to our strategy, and this is a further example of us providing excellent local assistance to our clients."

Isadora Tálamo stated: "I'm delighted to join Kennedys. The firm has a leading reputation in the insurance sector and a growing footprint in Brazil so it is an excellent fit given my experience"

The Miami office of Kennedys serves as their hub for Latin America. The firm also has US law capabilities in Miami and has formed strategic alliances with law firms across Latin America.