

KLA ADVISES IFC ON INVESTMENT IN BLABLACAR

Posted on 28 June 2022

Categories: Banking & Finance, Capital Markets

Tags: BlaBlaCar, IFC, Karin Alvo, KLA, KLA Advogados, sx1

KLA Advogados advised IFC Venture Capital (World Bank) on a investment in BlaBlaCar Brazil (Comuto Serviços de Tecnologia), a Brazilian subsidiary of BlaBlaCar France.

KLA was hired to review of the business carried out in Brazil by BBC and to provide to IFC and investors an overview of BBC's business and main regulatory challenges in the Brazilian market, together with the financing agreements. The analysis was focused also on the technology used by BBC to provide intermediation services through a digital technological platform, technical and computer services required to manage, structure and provide information; reservation services for bus passengers, through a digital technological platform provided by transport companies.

KLA relied on partner Karin Alvo (pictured) and associates Andre Maruch, Augusto Simões, Pedro Henrique Pessoa and Rafaella Coelho.