Lefosse advised Opty on the acquisition of Visão Hospital de Olhos, which was advised by Tauil & Chequer

Lefosse acted as counsel to Grupo Opty (from Patria Investimentos), through its invested companies Saúde Latam Holding S.A., Clínicas do Brasil Holding S/A and HOBRASIL - Hospitais Oftalmológicos do Brasil Ltda. in a transaction involving the acquisition of Visão Institutos Holding e Participações Ltda. from its founding shareholders.

The purchase price was paid in cash and in shares of Clínicas do Brasil. Visão Hospital de Olhos is a leading ophthalmology services provider in Brasília.

Lawyers from Tauil & Chequer associated to Mayer Brown advised the sellers in the sale of Visão Hospital de Olhos, a Brazilian institute specialized in ophthalmology, to Opty, the largest ophthalmology group in Latin America, invested by the private equity fund Pátria Investimentos.
