Lollato, Lopes, Rangel e Ribeiro Advogados advised Coritiba Foot Ball Club that filed for judicial reorganization

Lollato, Lopes, Rangel e Ribeiro Advogados advised Coritiba Foot Ball Club, which filed for judicial reorganization to proceed with a restructuring plan, started last year, with the creation of Coritiba SAF (Sociedade Anônima do Futebol).

SAFs were legalized in 2021 and allow clubs to create a corporation and pay in assets, to facilitate the entry of investors and debt restructuring.

The club's debt is approximately R$ 300 million. XP Investimentos was hired to find investors for the club. Alvarez & Marsal is responsible for the financial restructuring.
