

MATTOS FILHO ADVISES ACTIS ON MULTIJURISDICTIONAL TRANSACTION

Posted on 13 October 2022

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: ActisAtlas Renewable energy, Andrea Bazzo Lauletta, Bernardo Môcho Moura, Claro y Cia, Fabiano Ricardo Luz de Brito, Ferrere Abogados, GIP, Mattos Filho, Mijares Angoitia Cortés y Fuentes, Pedro Whitaker de Souza Dias, Sabrina Naritomi, Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom, slider

Mattos Filho advised Actis on the sale of 100% of its stake in Atlas Renewable Energy to Global Infrastructure Partners (GIP), alongside Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP (New York) and local advisors Claro y Cia (Chile), Mijares, Angoitia, Cortés y Fuentes (Mexico) and Ferrere Abogados (Uruguay).

Atlas is the second largest independent renewables developer in Latin America with 14 fully contracted solar assets that produce 2.3GW of installed capacity.

The transaction value was not disclosed.

Mattos Filho advised Actis Assessoria Investimento and relied on partners (in the image from left to right) Sabrina Naritomi, Pedro Whitaker de Souza Dias, Andrea Bazzo Lauletta, Fabiano Ricardo Luz de Brito, Bernardo Môcho Moura and lawyers Joana Pimentel Gomes Reimão, Pedro Andreoli Hirata, Rafaela Moreira Haddad.

The Skadden team includes M&A partner Paola Lozano and associates José Manuel Vivanco Letelier, Francisco Carrillo (São Paulo) and law clerk Maria Carbo; Tax partner Edward Gonzalez; International Litigation and Arbitration partner Julie Bédard (New York and São Paulo); and International Visiting Professional Jorge Ignacio Covarrubias Serrano. All attorneys are located in New York, unless otherwise noted.