Miranda & Amado advised Credicorp Capital which was structuring and placement agent in the $100 million bond offering by Banco GNB Perú. The issuer instructed Lazo, De Romaña & CMB Abogados.

This is the first time Banco GNB issues subordinated debt. Both the first issuance (for US$15 million), as well as bonds to be issued in the future within the programme, will be considered as Tier 2 capital for the bank, as authorized by the Peruvian Superintendence of Banks.

Partner Nydia Guevara fronted the team at Miranda & Amado Abogados advising Credicorp Capital.

Banco GNB Perú retained a team at Lazo, De Romaña & CMB Abogados led by partner Jorge Lazo.
