Miranda & Amado advised Banco Internacional del Perú (Interbank) in the PEN 120 million ($35 million) issuance by Financiera Oh!.

Interbank acted as the structuring agent for the transaction. Financiera Oh! registered its Fourth Programme of Negotiable Certificates of Deposit with the Peruvian Superintendence of Capital Markets, for an amount of up to PEN 300 million.

Financiera Oh! is a Peruvian financial institution formed in 2009, it is part of Intercorp Group (through IFH Retail Corp).

Earlier in 2016, the company made a PEN 30 million placement ($8.8 million) and instructed Miranda & Amado as deal counsel.

Partner Nydia Guevara led the team advising Interbank while Financiera OH! relied on in-house counsel on this occasion.
