Ontier announced the integration of Alburquerque & Alburquerque, a law firm in the Dominican Republic, into its global office network.

Alburquerque & Alburquerque, Ontier's new partner firm, is headquartered in Santo Domingo and was founded over 40 years ago by father-and-son duo José M. Alburquerque and José Manuel Alburquerque Prieto. It focuses on corporate, tax and litigation matters.

Ontier is headquartered in London and it now has offices in 15 countries, including 9 in Latin America.

In the announcement, both firms commented on the opportunities in the Dominican Republic, which is currently considered the second largest economy in the Central America and Caribbean.
