

PACHECO COTO OPENS SECOND OFFICE IN COSTA RICA AND LAUNCHES IN HONG KONG

Posted on 25 April 2016

Category: News

Central American law firm Pacheco Coto announced two new offices, one in Hong Kong and another closer to home, in Limón, Costa Rica.

Pacheco Coto was founded in San Jose, Costa Rica in 1939. It now boasts an international footprint of 10 offices in 4 continents, a distinctive trait among Central American law firms.

With the launch in Limón, the firm is set to provide added value to investors and entrepreneurs in a region of growing importance in the areas of energy, agribusiness, transport, tourism and real estate.

The Hong Kong office is poised to serve as gateway for Europeans and Latin Americans investing in China and likewise, for Chinese citizens who wish to invest in Europe or Latin America.

According to Humberto Pacheco, Chairman of the law firm, the completion of this Hong Kong project, framed within the latest expansion strategy in Pacheco Coto's solid 77-year trajectory, further strengthens the firm's expertise in international asset planning provided to corporate and individual clients worldwide, as well as its professional services as specialists in corporate and commercial law.