

PELLERANO & HERRERA ADVISED SCOTIABANK ON $40 MILLION FOR RESIDENTIAL COMPOUND

Posted on 3 July 2017

Category: News

Dominican Republic law firm Pellerano & Herrera acted for Scotiabank on the financing of the residential compound for staff of the US embassy in Santo Domingo.

Scotiabank is Canada's 3rd largest bank and it has global operations, including Latin America.

The bank provided the financing to US Overseas Housing LLC, in charge of building 75 new residential units in a secure compound. The residential complex will house U.S. personnel working at the embassy.

Partner Luis Rafael Pellerano led the team advising Scotiabank.