Mello has worked for the oil company and was a partner in an offshore company owned by Nestor Cerveró (pictured right), the former international director of the state-owned oil company, an admitted defendant in the "Lava Jato" scandal, sentenced to six years in prison for passive corruption and money laundering.
