Carlos Alberto Reyes Comandari has been elected to the partnership at Ibero-American law firm Philippi, Prietocarrizosa & Uría.

Carlos Alberto Reyes is based in Santiago de Chile and focuses his practice on the natural resources industry, particularly in the area of energy and project development. He joined the firm as senior counsel in 2014, from Chilean law firm Urrutia & Cia.

He holds an L.L.M from Duke University (2002) and is a law graduate from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile (1996).

"I feel honoured by this appointment and proud to be a part of this great Firm. It is a tremendous challenge that makes me feel satisfied and committed to further continue building the success of this organization", said Carlos Alberto Reyes.
