Posse Herrera Ruiz has counselled Greenergy on a local basis in the negotiation and signing of the asset purchase and sale agreement with Grupo Solari, whereby it agreed to acquire the assets related to two renewable energy projects.

The projects acquired were "Los Caballeros" and "Medina", both located in the department of Tolima, Colombia.

This transaction was announced on 18 August, and its closing is subject to the fulfilment of various obligations common to this type of deals.
