Pinheiro Neto Advogados advised Dimensa, a joint venture of Totvs and B3, which has acquired 100% of Vadu, a fintech that automates and brings intelligence to the process of prospection, execution and credit analysis and post-credit monitoring, which was advised by Cescon Barrieu Advogados.

The deal value was R$40 million.

The transaction consolidates Dimensa's position in the technological and financial market, since the transaction contributes, along with other acquisitions, to the company's growth and portfolio expansion.
