Parga Montes & Vasseur Laborales has announced the addition of Alexandra de Grenade Errázuriz (pictured) as a new partner.

A graduate of the Gabriela Mistral University with a Diploma in General Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure Reform, she has focused her professional career in the labour area, especially in highly complex litigation.

She has more than 20 years of experience advising private sector companies in the labour field, especially in individual and collective labour law, legal validation of human resources policies, as well as giving training lectures on these matters.

She worked for four years in the Public Prosecutor's Office, and then worked for more than twenty years in the team of Eyzaguirre y Cia., developing her career in civil, commercial and corporate law trials in the first instance, to later lead the team of Labour Consultancy to large companies where she had a broad management of cases. She also formed the law firm Agosin & de Grenade Abogados to provide personalised labour advice to employers.
