Iberian American law firm Philippi Prietocarrizosa Ferrero DU & Uría announced the arrival of Paulina Miranda as a partner in Santiago de Chile.

Miranda joins from PMV, an employment law boutique she founded in 2013. Her career includes 20 years of experience in labour law, immigration and social security matters. She is a law graduate from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and prior to setting her own law firm, she worked for over 15 years at another leading firm in Chile.

Miranda is the fourth partner to join Philippi Prietocarrizosa Ferrero DU & Uría and the first woman partner since the launch of the regional firm.

PPU now has 45 partners across four offices: Santiago, Bogotá, Barranquilla y Lima.
