Philippi Prietocarrizosa Ferrero DU & Uría has represented Scotiabank Peru and Coöperatieve Rabobank on a club deal financing operation, in which they granted a credit line in favour of Tecnológica de Alimentos (TASA).

This transaction, closed on 22 April, marks the first local sustainable financing to a local fishing company, which is secured by a pledge on fishing vessels owned by the borrower. The firm Miranda y Amado acted as advisor to TASA.

In-house counsels involved in the transaction were Claudia Angulo for TASA; Jorge Miranda for Raabobank; and Derek Rickets and Krystell Montenegro for Scotiabank.
