Queiroz e Lautenschläger Advogados announced the arrival of Rodrigo Griz (pictured) to join the Tax and Customs areas.

Rodrigo has more than 14 years of experience in assisting national and international clients. His practice includes import, export, industrialization, wholesale, retail, and service operations, as well as participation in business structuring and remodeling projects, negotiating special regimes and tax incentives, including customs, at the federal, state, and municipal levels.

Griz is a post-graduation professor at several institutes, such as PUC-SP and Ibet, and a former councilor of the São Paulo Municipal Tax Council.
