Rebaza, Alcázar & De Las Casas in Lima and White & Case in New York have brokered a $50 million loan for Peruvian hydroelectric power company La Virgen.

According to a Rebaza statement, the loan has a corporate guarantee from one of La Virgen's shareholders – Brazilian utility company Alupar Investimento – as collateral.

The loan will be used for the development of a 64MW hydro power plant located in the central forest of Peru, in the Region of Junin.

White & Case advised the lenders Santander while Rebaza, Alcázar & De Las Casas acted for La Virgen and Alupar Investimento.
