Rodrigo Elías & Medrano has announced the reinstatement of José Chiarella (pictured) as a new Tax and Estate Planning partner.

José specialises in tax planning, international taxation, mergers and acquisitions, transaction finance and advising local families on wealth matters.

He previously formed part of the firm as a partner between 2009 and 2016, and also served as a partner at Garrigues Peru, and as a founding partner of Damma Legal Advisors. He also worked in Luxembourg as a consultant in the international tax planning department at EY.

He holds a law degree from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú and a Master's degree in International Business Law from The London School of Economics and Political Sciences, as well as postgraduate studies in international taxation at the International Tax Center, Leiden University. He is a member of the Lima Bar Association, the Peruvian Institute of Tax Law (IPDT), the Peruvian Group of the International Fiscal Association, The International Academy of Estate and Trust Law (IAETL) and the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).
