SQUIRE PATTON BOGGS ADDS LATIN AMERICA-FOCUSED TELECOMMUNICATIONS PARTNER

Posted on 7 April 2017

Category: News

Squire Patton Boggs announced that Eduardo Guzman has joined its communications practice group in Washington, DC.

Eduardo Guzmán is a graduate of Georgetown University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School and regularly advises telecommunications, media and technology companies on regulatory and dispute resolution matters in the US and Latin America. He has particular experience in Puerto Rico, where he has represented telecommunications providers in regulatory, litigation and public policy matters for over a decade.

Guzman joined Squire Patton Boggs from law firm Drinker Biddle & Reath.