

TAUIL & CHEQUER LAUNCHES OFFICE IN BRASILIA

Posted on 16 September 2016

Category: News

Tauil & Chequer Advogados announced its new office in Brasilia led by Luís Inácio Adams, the former minister and Attorney General of Brazil.

Adams will join the team in the litigation and compliance practices, focusing on cases in the Superior Court of Justice and Supreme Court.

"Luís Adams is a highly distinguished and experienced lawyer, and his arrival is a significant move for our firm, reflecting our continued growth in Brazil," stated Alexandre Chequer, the partner in charge of Tauil & Chequer Advogados. "We are constantly expanding, and this new addition, together with the opening of our new office in Brasília, consolidates our position as one of the most reputable law firms in Brazil."

Adams served as a National Treasury attorney from 1993 to 2001 and from 2001 to 2002, served as the Deputy General Counsel for Litigation in the Attorney General's office. He as also the General Counsel and later Executive Secretary (Vice-Minister) of the Ministry of Planning, Budget and Management. In 2006, Adams was appointed the General Counsel of the Ministry of Finance. In 2009, he was appointed as Minister and Attorney General of Brazil.