Tauil & Chequer Advogados associated with Mayer Brown represented the banks Itaú BBA, XP Investimentos and Safra (coordinators) in the 14th issue of debentures of Hypera, a Brazilian pharmaceutical company, in the amount of R$ 750 million.

The company, which owns the brands Mantecorp, Benegrip, Coristina, Epocler, and Neo Química, will use the funds raised through the issue to repay debts.

The team was led by partner Luis Montes (pictured) and associate Dianie Teixeira, both from the Capital Markets & Securitization area.

Lobo de Rizzo acted as the company advisors and relied on partner Maria Costa Neves Machado and associates Mariana Modesto Zelmanovits and Marina Aguiar Santini.
