Tanoira Cassagne Abogados has counselled Teamcubation in the structuring and execution of its seed financing round, in which investment funds Alaya Capital Partners III, FJ Labs LP; MrPink Inception Fund LP and Opera Capital Ventures LP participated.

This investment will allow Teamcubation to consolidate its position in the region, as well as in the technology sector, and ensures recognition of the company by leading investors in the market, as well as the potential of the platform.

The advisory involved the entire structuring and execution of the financing round by the firm's New Business, Innovation and Digital Transformation team.

Teamcubation offers training services to junior programmers hired by companies. Its mission is to act as a "bridge between education and work", accelerating the process of adaptation and knowledge of recent graduates to achieve their rapid incorporation into large projects.
