Thompson & Knight announced that Luis Moreno Treviño has joined the firm as a partner.

Moreno received his law degree from Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México in 1991 and an LL.M., magna cum laude, from the University of Houston in 1993. He is licensed in Mexico and New York and has worked in the implementation of Mexico's energy reform. Additionally, his expertise includes real estate and finance.

Prior to joining Thompson & Knight, he was the managing partner of Haynes and Boone in Mexico City. Associate Roxana Burciaga also made the jump to Thompson & Knight. She focuses her practice on oil and gas transactional, real estate, and corporate governance.

"Luis has nearly 20 years of expertise advising clients in the energy, hospitality, and real estate industries, and Roxana brings experience in international corporate, real estate, and energy transactional law," said Luis F. Gomar, Thompson & Knight's Mexico City Office Leader in the announcement.
