Pinheiro Neto, Lefosse and Stocche Forbes were involved at this deal. The transaction involved two sellers: BNDES and Opportunity, which sold their positions in Ouro Fino to Mitsui.

Mitsui entered into share purchase and sale agreements setting forth the acquisition by Mitsui of the totality of the shares issued by Ouro Fino and held by Opportunity or BNDES, subject to conditions set forth in such agreements.

Due to the Transaction, a shareholders' agreement was signed between controlling shareholders of Ouro Fino and Mitsui, with effects subject to the completion of the transaction. The transaction was submitted to the Brazilian Antitrust Authority (CADE).
