TozziniFreire Advogados acted on the merger between TPB Acquisition Corporation, a SPAC of The Production Board, and Lavoro Agro, a group of companies with presence in three countries of Latin America (Brazil, Colombia and Uruguay) controlled by Pátria Investimentos.

Lavoro Agro will raise US$ 225 million and will subsequently be listed in Nasdaq, with a market value of US$ 1,2 billion.

This transaction shall reinforce Lavoro's strategy of growth and market consolidation through acquisitions.

Cooley LLP advised the same parties and relied on associates Yoana Setzer, Wesley E. Dietrich and Michelle A Peleg.

Guyer & Regules also advised the buyer, and relied on partner Javier Berdaguer, associate Romina Maderni Pittaluga and María Noel Riotorto.

Posse, Herrera, Ruiz also represented TPB with partner Jaime Herrera and associate Susana Gómez and Margarita Jaramillo.

Pinheiro Neto Advogados was counsel to Lavoro Agro and companies of the group.
