VBSO Advogados advised the selling partners of Acura Technologies in the sale of all the company's shares to a company of the HID Global group, which was advised by Hogan Lovells.

Acura is a Brazilian manufacturer and reseller of Radio-Frequency Identification - RFID hardware. Founded in the late 1990s, Acura quickly became one of the leading manufacturers and resellers of RFID hardware products in Brazil, targeting mainly corporate, industrial, logistics, transportation and retail applications for large customers such as Ambev, Cargill, Nike, Sem Parar, Mercedes Benz, Honda Motors, HP and Vale.

VBSO partner Amanda Visentini (pictured) and associate Patricia Catache Mancini assisted Acura since the beginning of this operation, from the negotiation of the documents to their elaboration and celebration.

Hogan Lovells International LLP assisted HID Global in the transaction, as international legal advisors and relied on partner Peter Cohen-Millstein (New York), São Paulo Office Managing Partner Isabel Costa Carvalho and associate Felipe Lacerda (São Paulo).
